

Higher Tehnological School of Professional Studies

Sabac, Hajduk Veljkova br. 10

Web site: vtssa.edu.rs

Higher Tehnological School of Professional Studies in Sabac was established by the Republic of Serbia in 1960's with the goal of professional education of engineers for the needs of the economy and industry.

The School has five basic programs of study, in duration of three years (180 ESPB): Production technologies (Pharmaceutical technology and cosmetics, Chemical technology and materials and Food technologies), Environmental protection, Information technology and Engineering management, with an annual enrollment of 300 students. Specialist studies of Engineering management, one-year program (60ESPB) is enrolling 35 students per year.